DEDICATION

TO OUR TEACHERS,
FOR THE COUNTLESS THINGS
THEY HAVE GIVEN US,
EXPECTING NO THANKS
BUT TO SEE THEIR
WISDOM AND STRENGTH
PRESENT IN THE
ADULT LIVES
WHICH THEY HAVE HELPED TO SHAPE.

The world around us changes . . . all the tomorrows we waited for have become – today. And here we stand, changed also and in so very many ways.

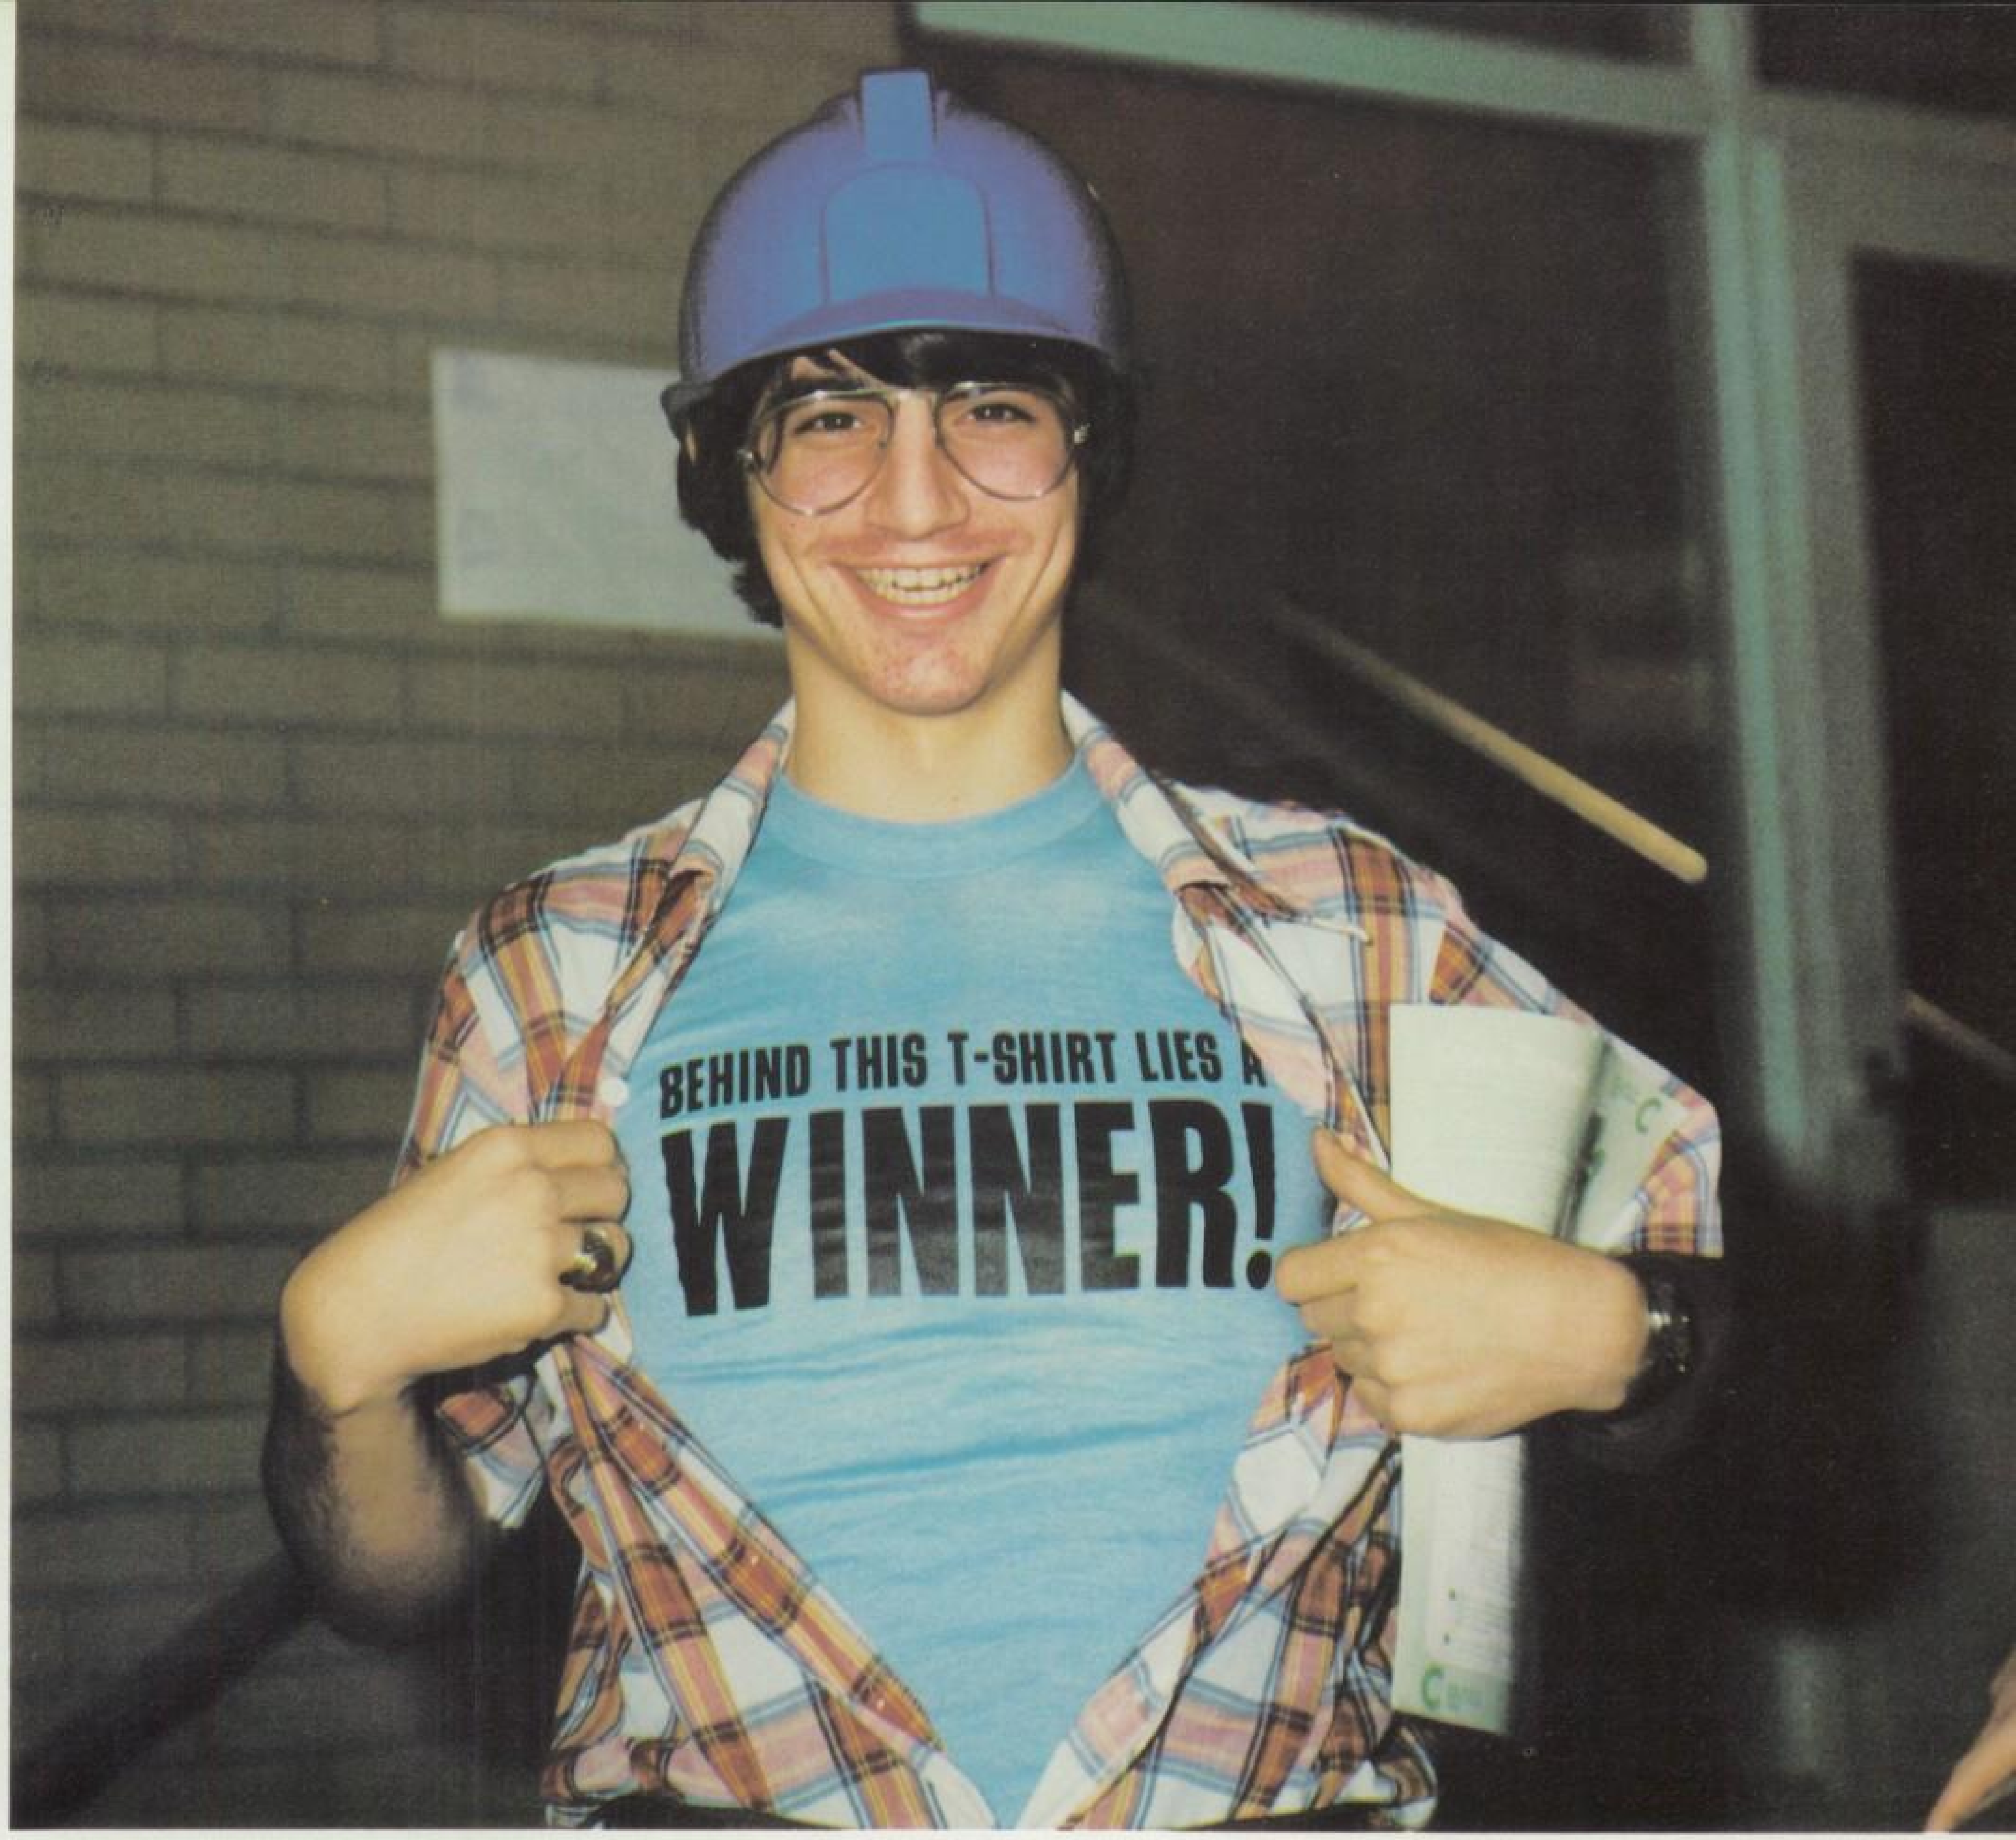

Albertas Magnus High School Route 304 & Germonds Road Bardonia, New York

We look around us and our world no longer seems the same.
No one knows, no one can name, the one moment, the one person, that opened the door to these new horizons we now look upon.
Indeed, each experience, each person along the way –
has guided us towards this day.

We pause now
for a moment
before this magic door
of youth.

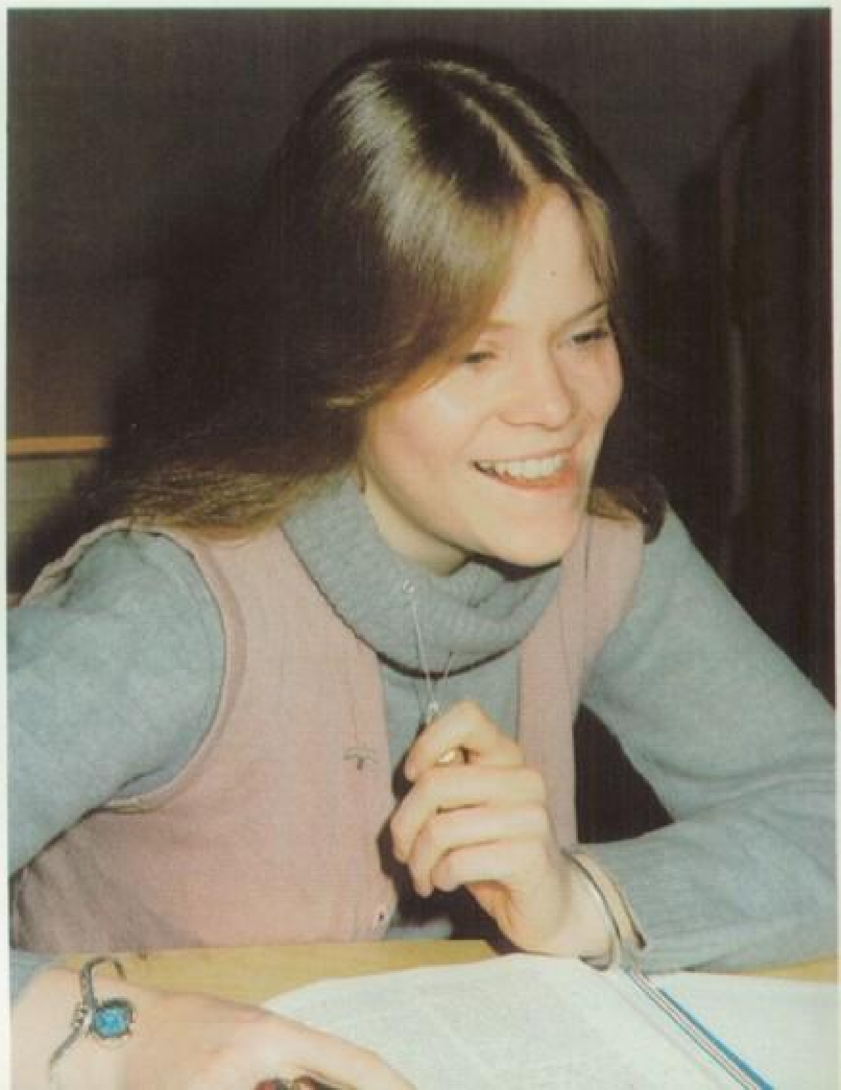

It is the springtime of our lives and we begin to explore this timeless freedom, and the world that is ours.
Different paths call us in so many directions;
and we move through the magic door
taking the hopes and dreams of youth with us.

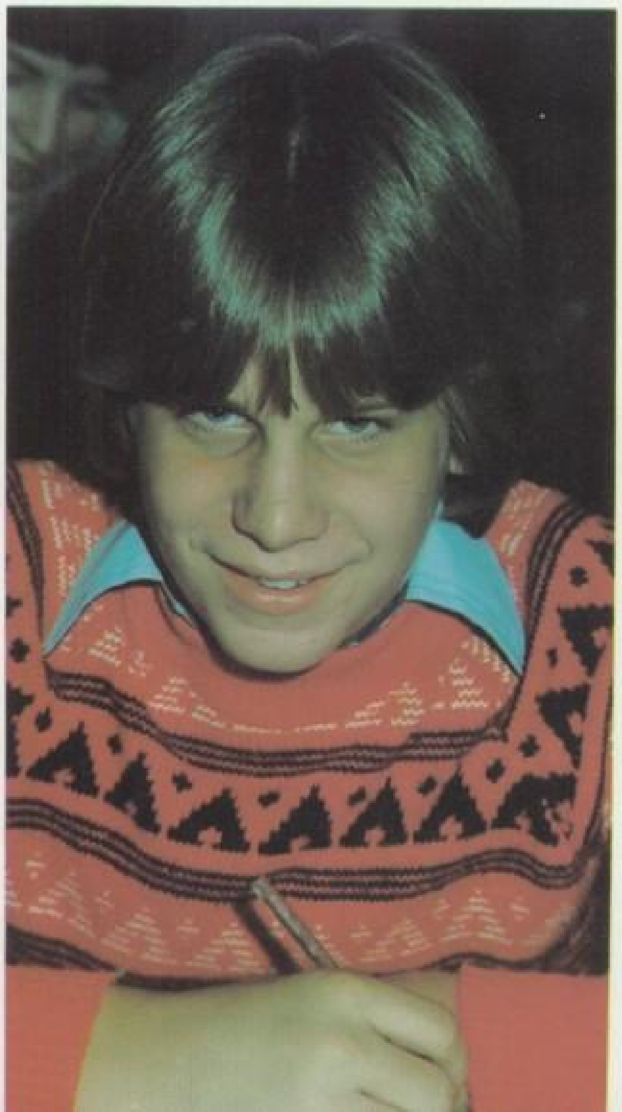

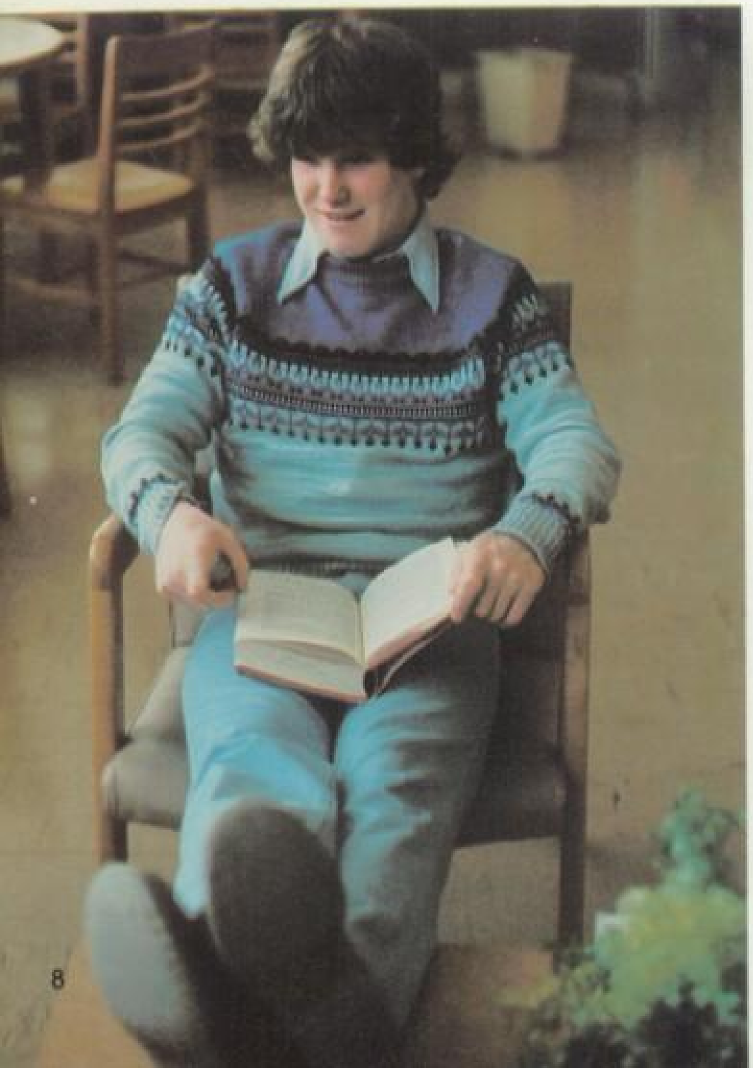

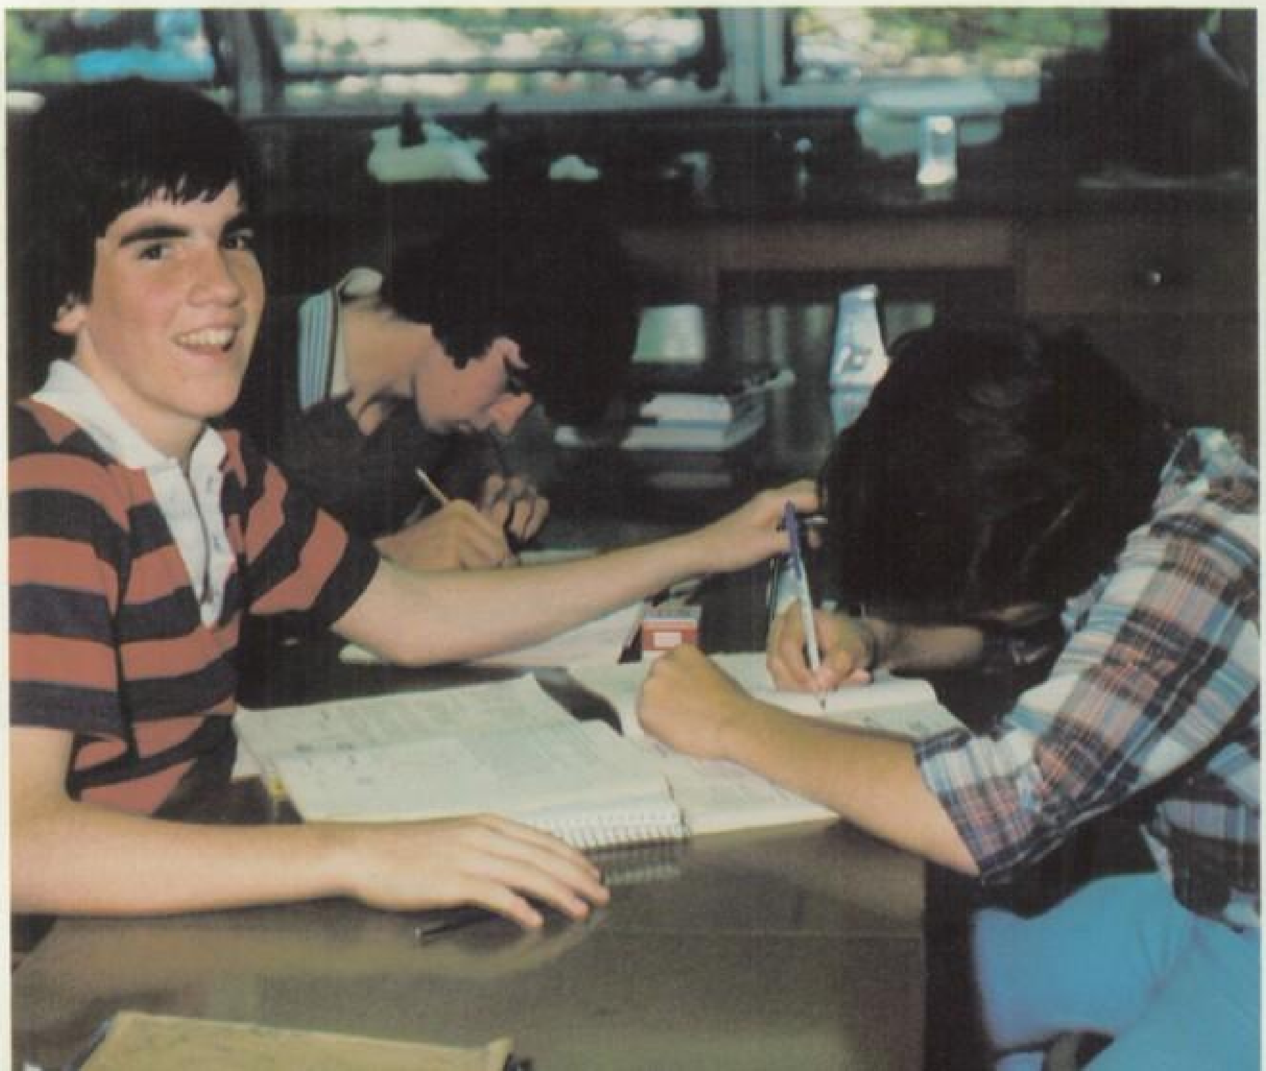

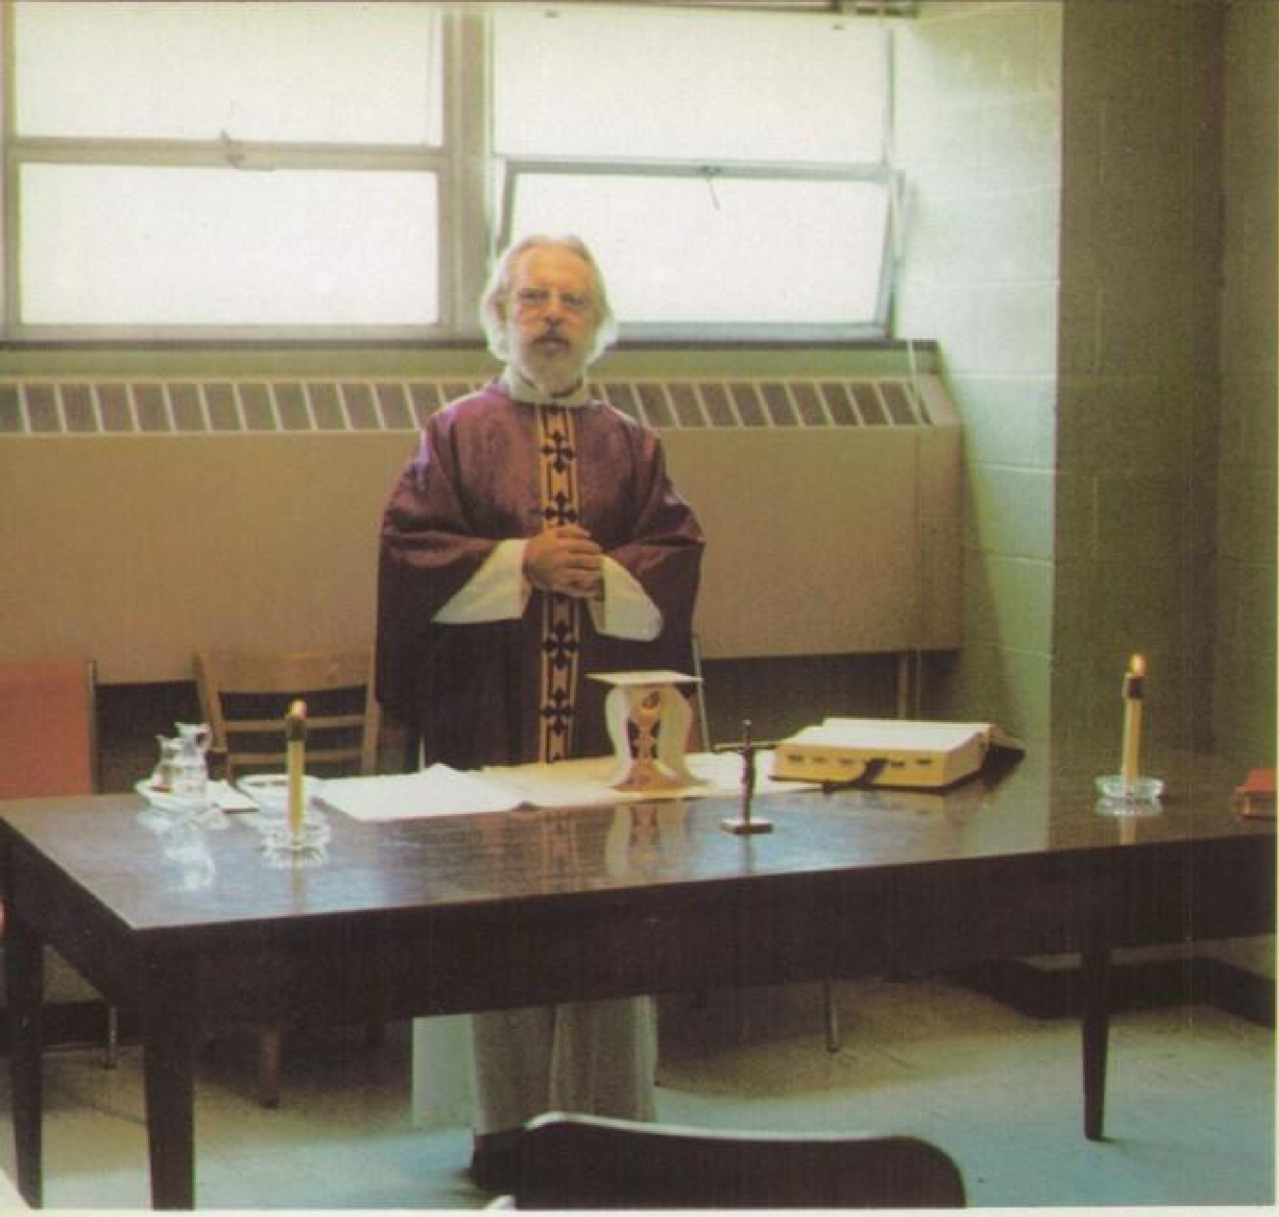

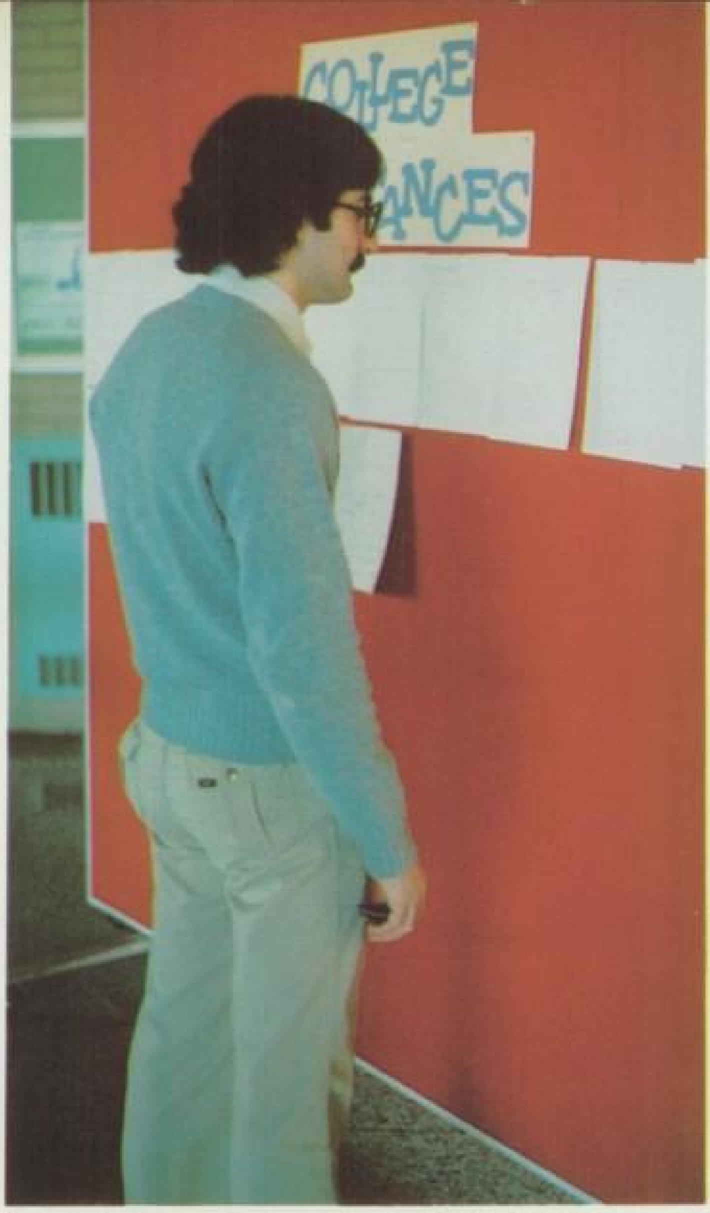

Soon,
we will be moving
through the corridors
of time
somewhere else,
maybe far away,
or close by . . .

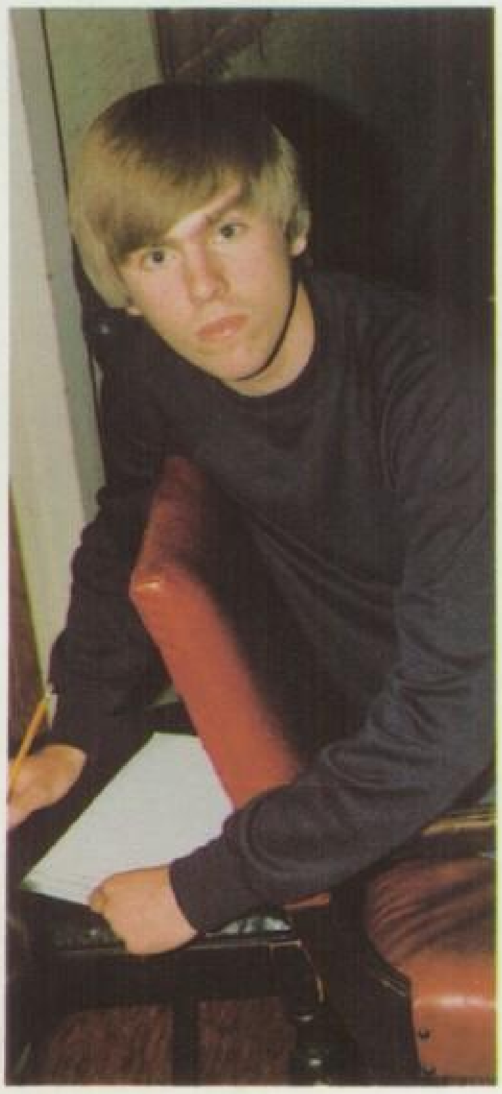

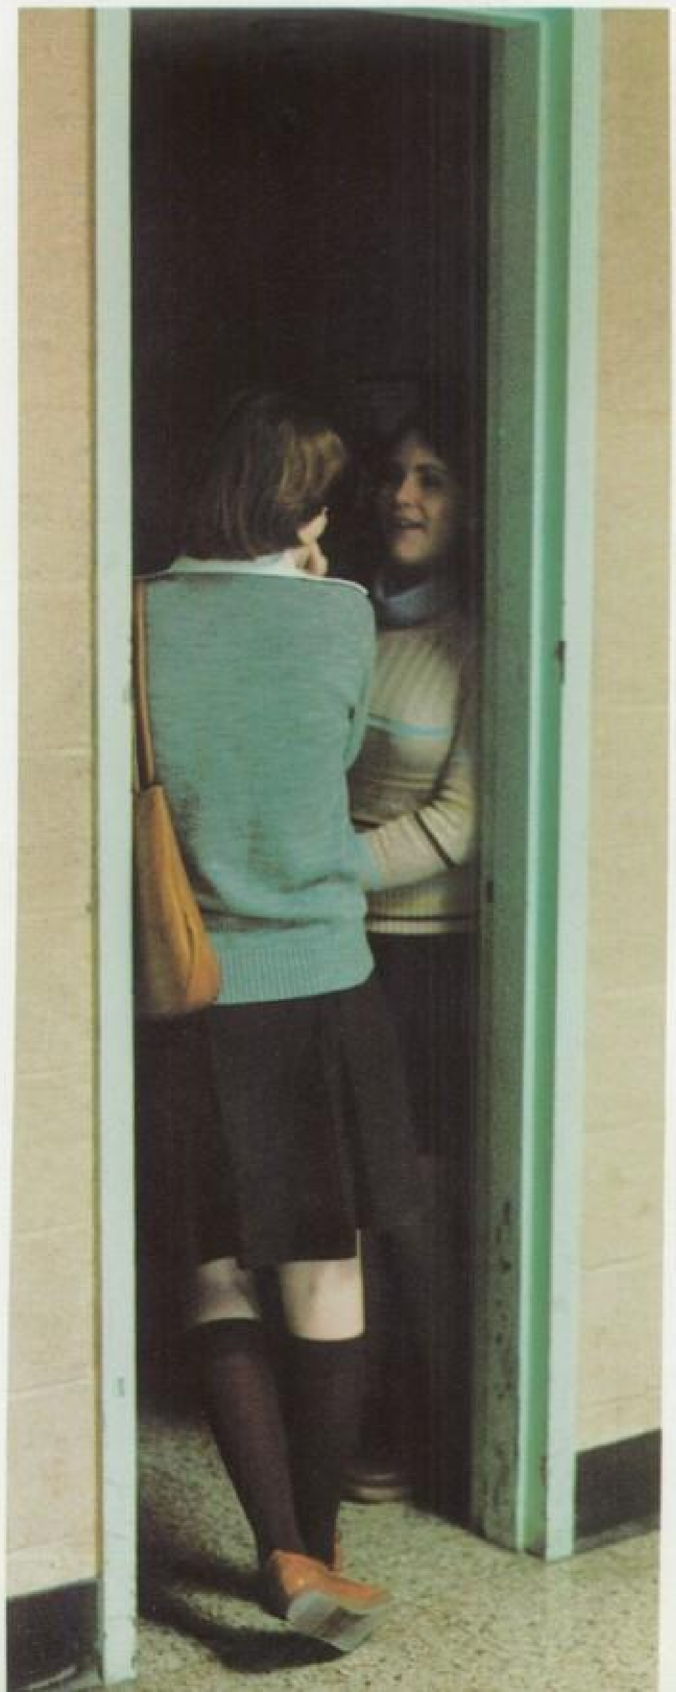

But never here again.
Still, all that we have given up and taken in,
all the smiles and moments
we have brought one another,
will remain the bond between us.

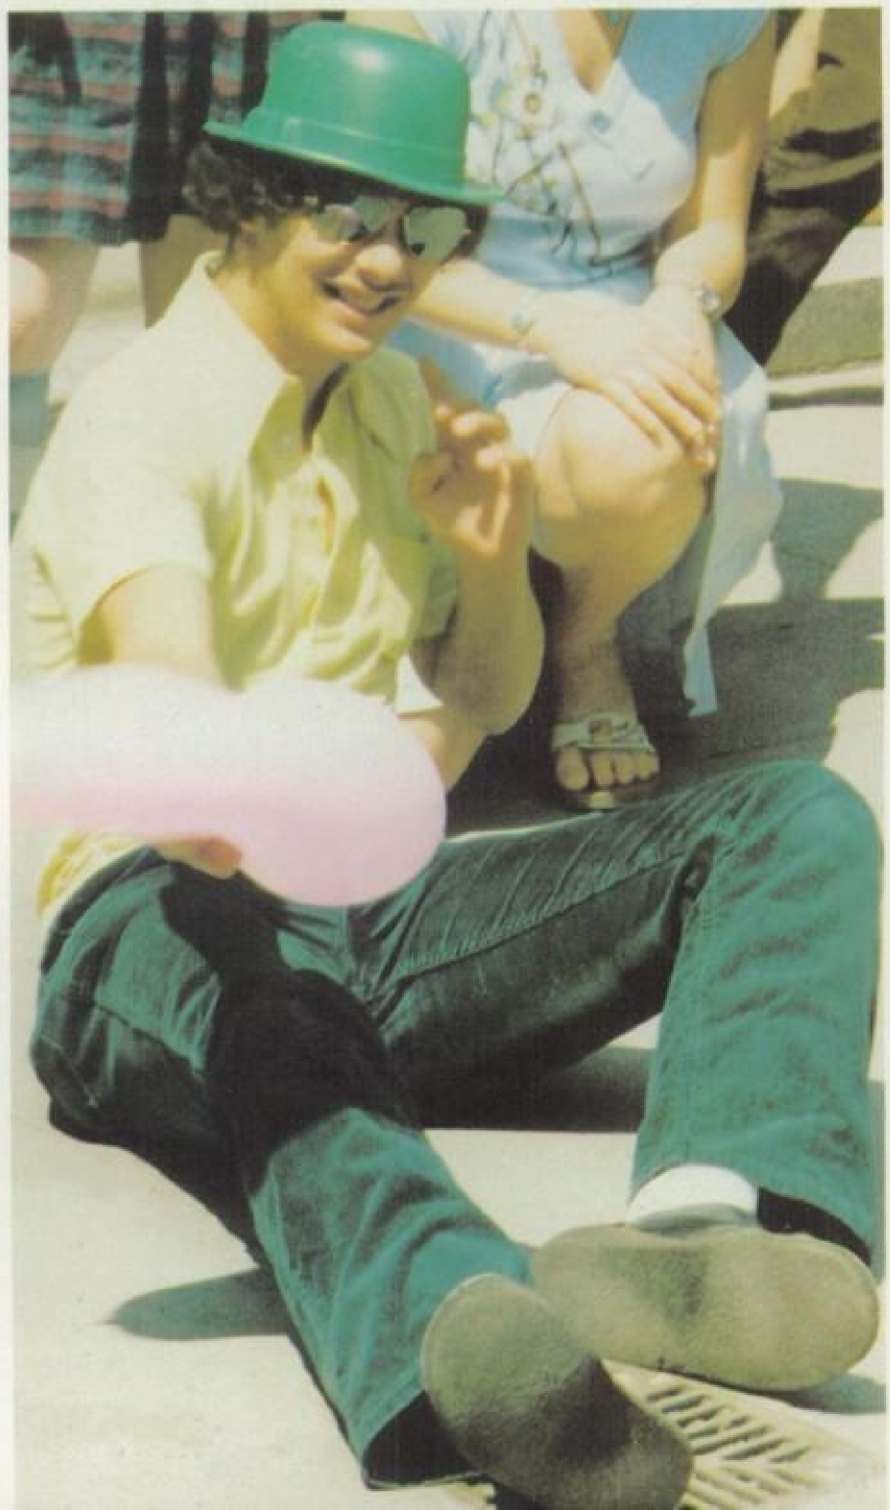

Courtesy

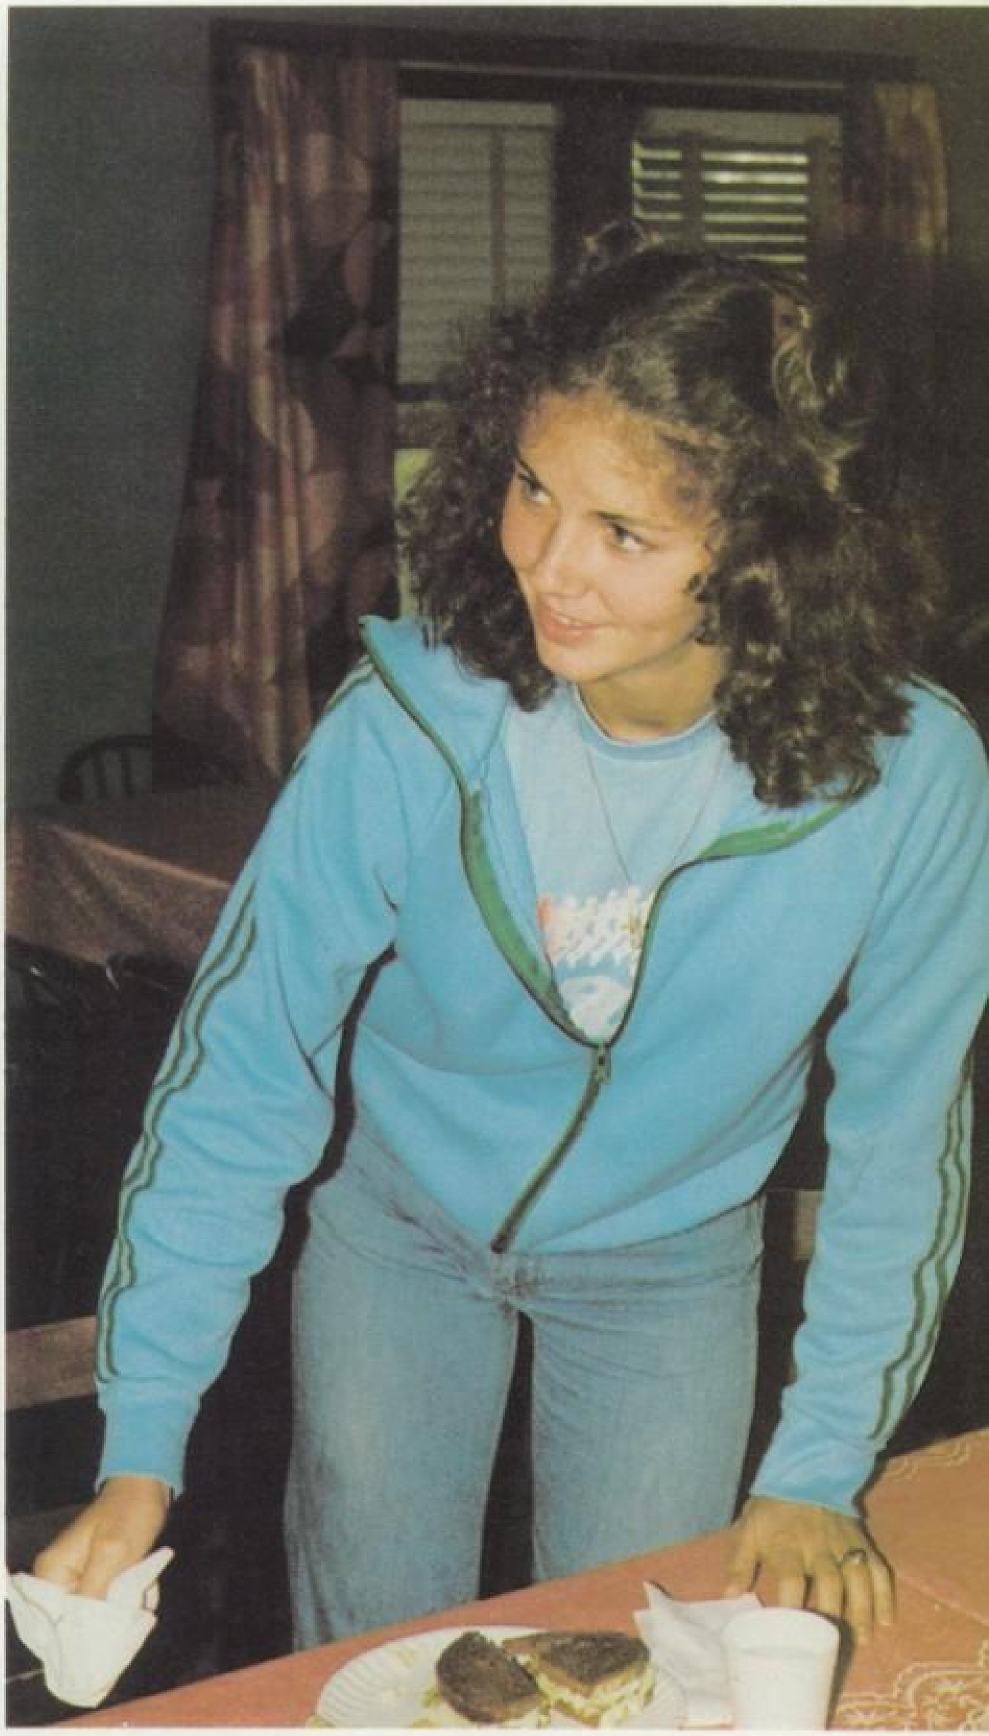

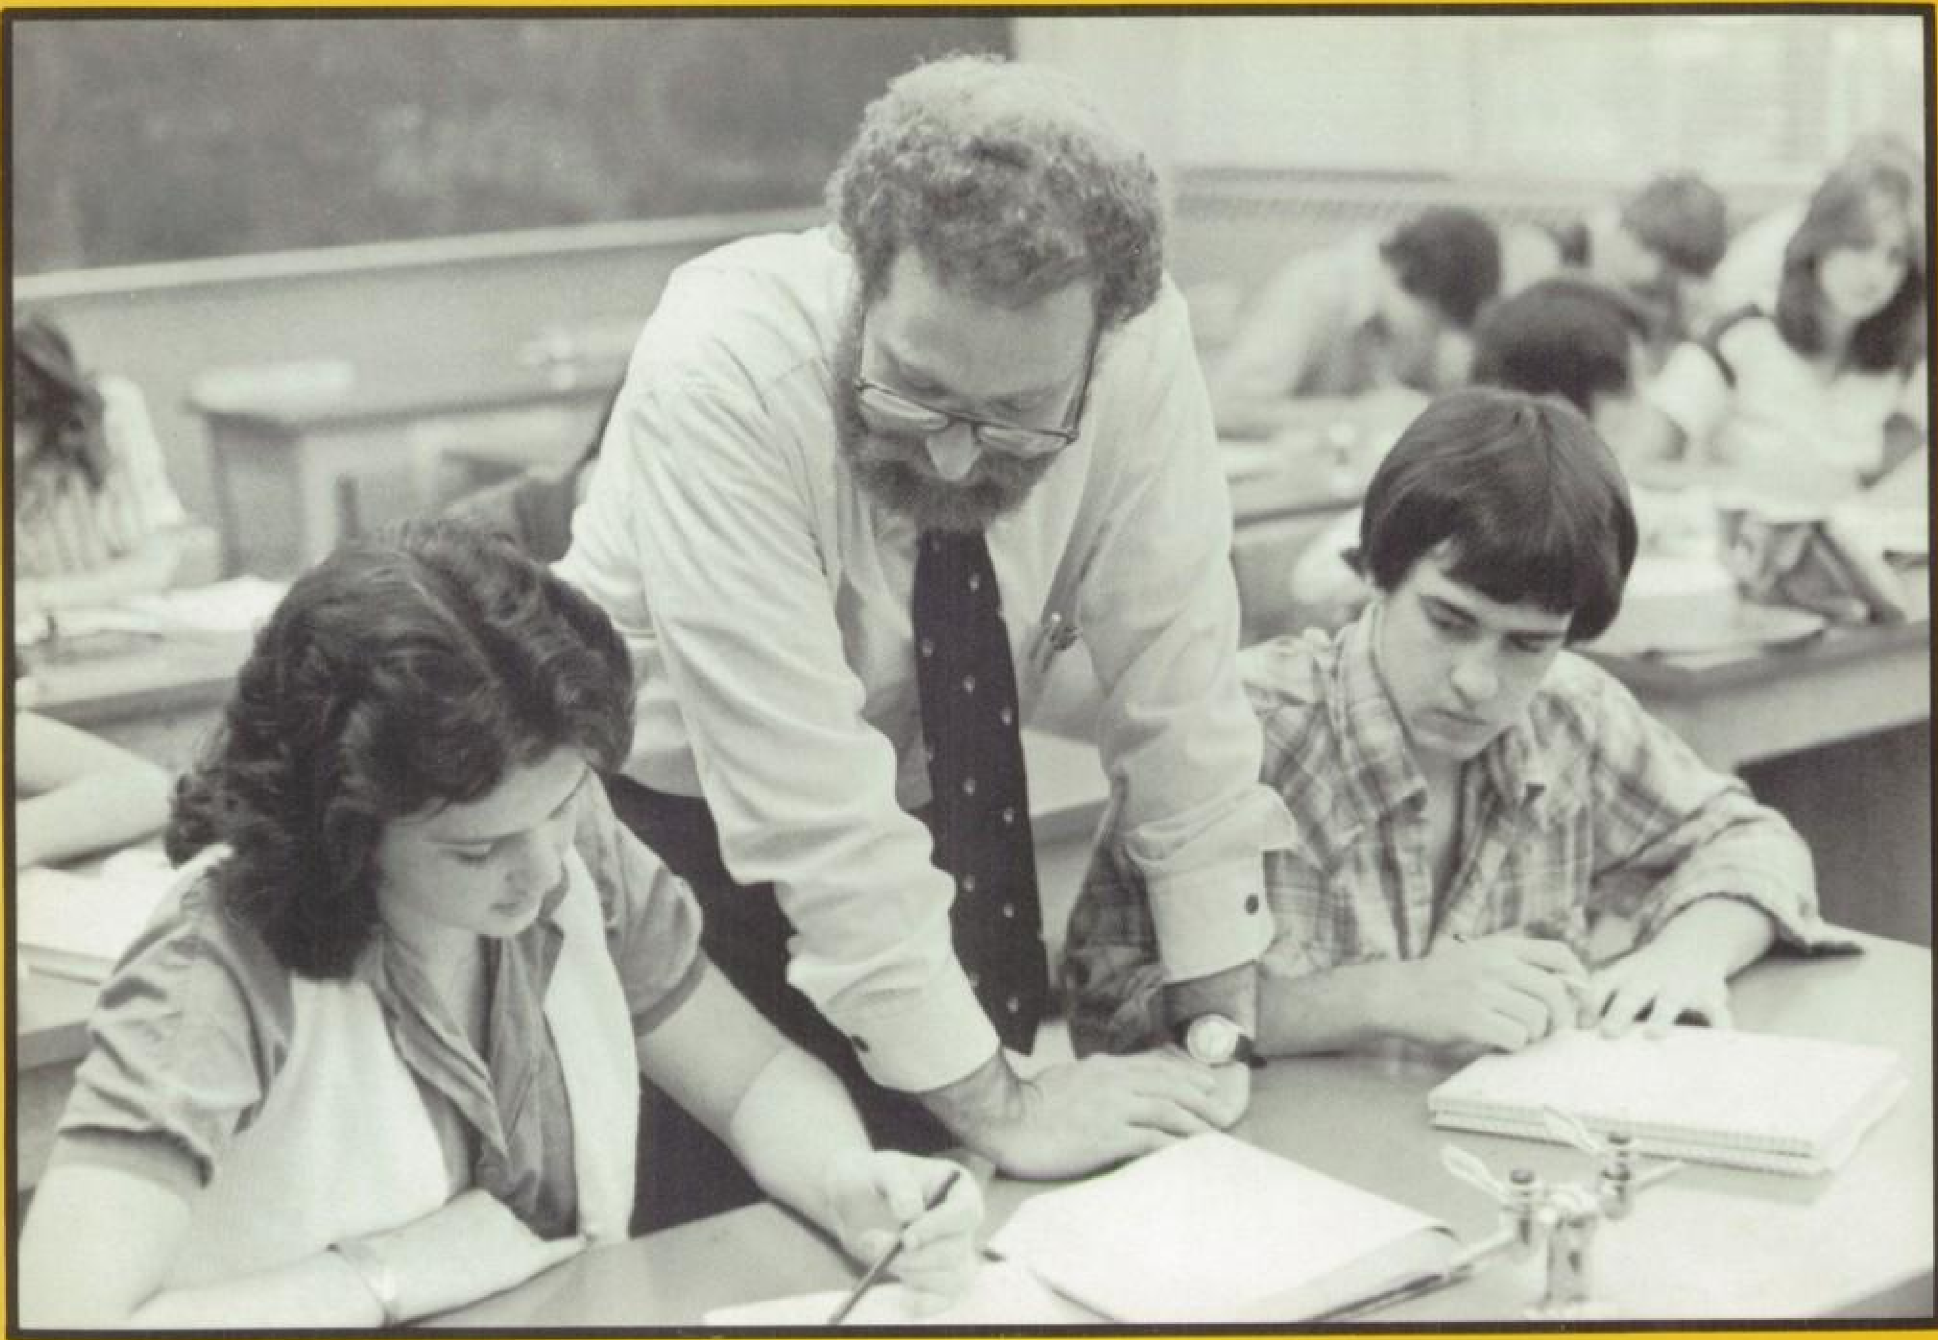

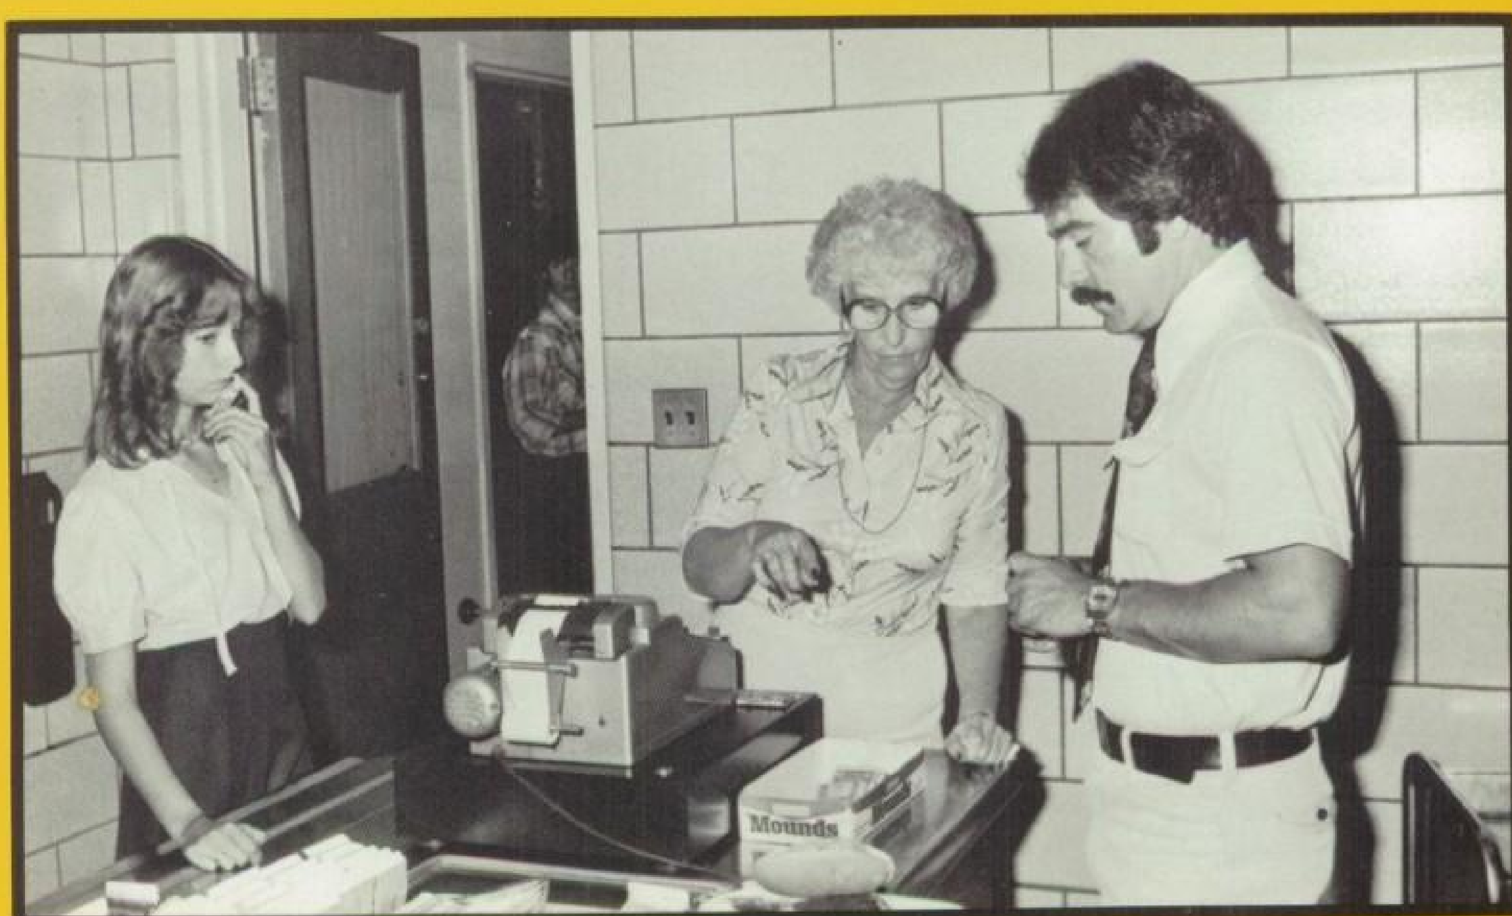

Now let us
be on our way
careful at first,
soon we will thrive,
with the power
of being young
in the springtime
of our lives.

"Will They Be Changed When They Get Up And Go?"

In October, 1979 our new pontiff, Pope John Paul II, came on a week-long visit to the United States. During the time that he was in New York City, the Pope stopped at Madison Square Garden for a youth rally. Two busloads of Albertus students left the school at 6 A.M. to greet him. While at the rally, John Paul was serenaded by a choir of teen-agers and presented with symbolic gifts, including a pair of jeans and a souvenir T - shirt. We all enjoyed the time spent together, especially John Paul himself, and we did feel changed when we left.

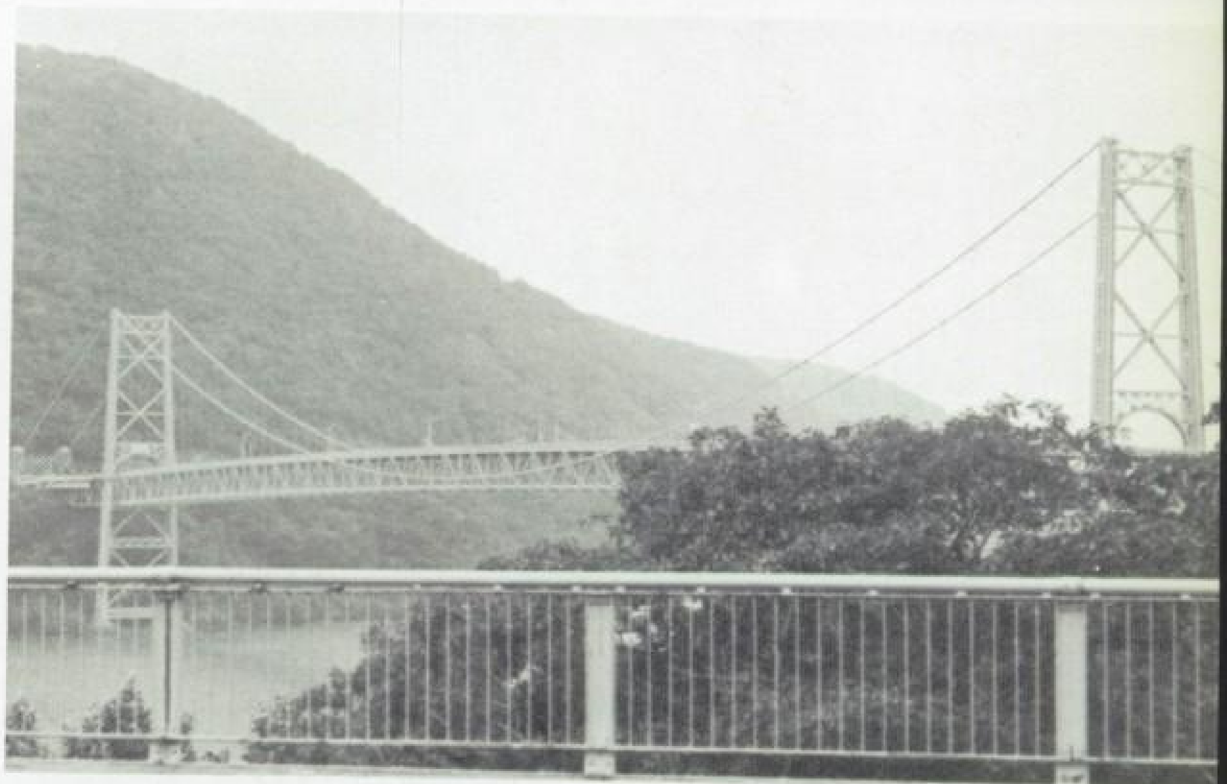

Rockland Hangouts

There are places
I'll remember
all my life,
though some have changed . . .

and the seasons
they go round and round
and the painted ponies go up and down
we're captives on the carousel of time . . .
we can't return
we can only look behind
from where we came and go round and round and round
in the circle game . . .

Seasons change
with the scenery
weaving time
in a tapestry . . .
won't you stop
and remember me
at any convenient
time?

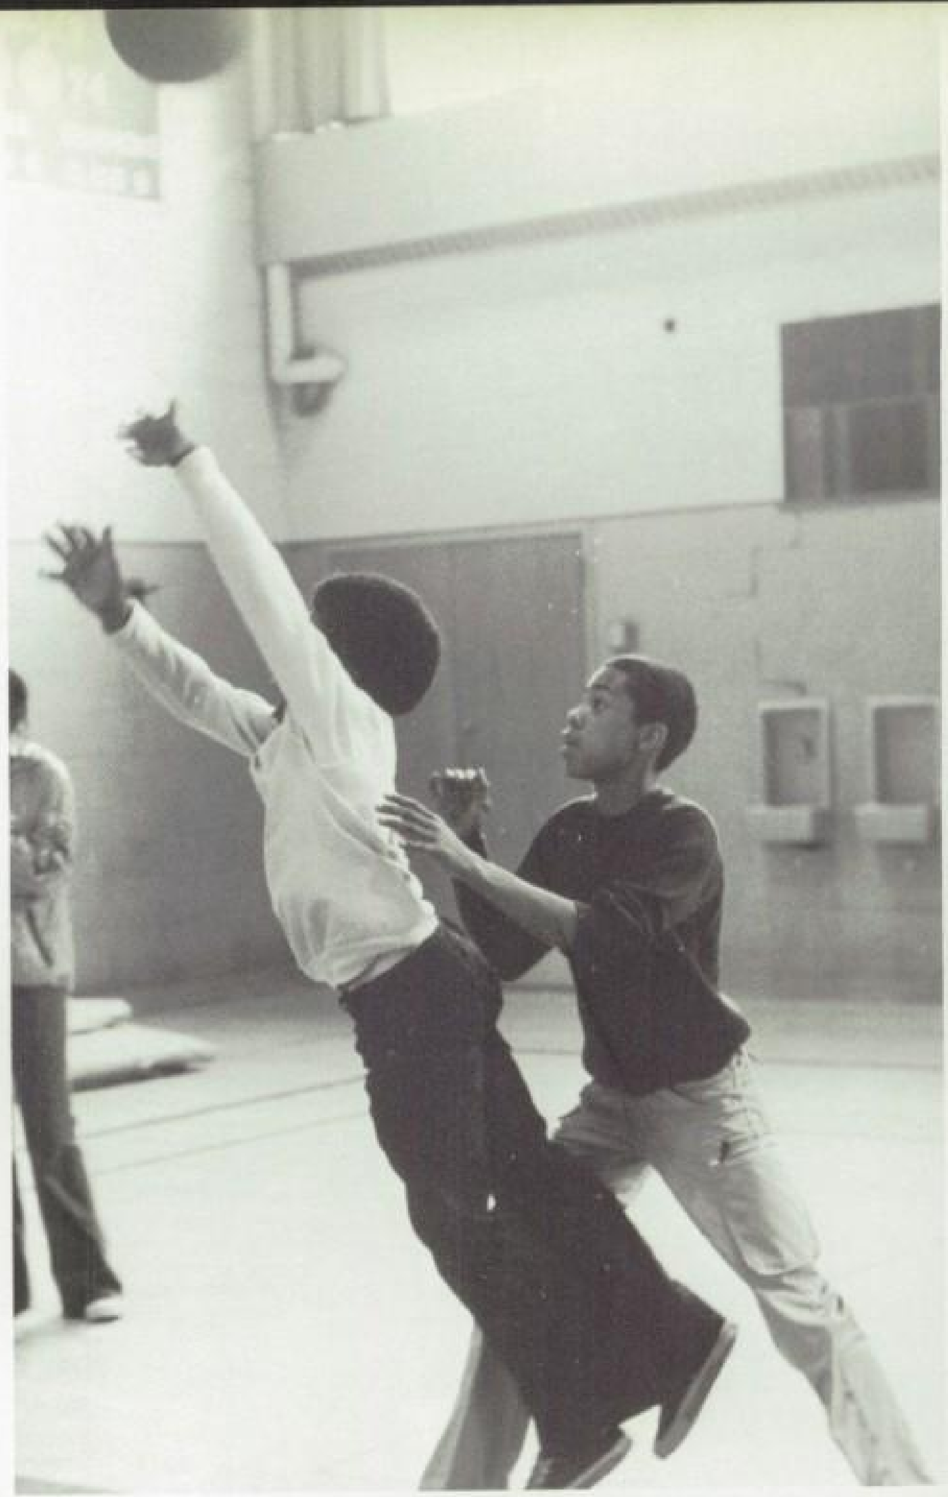

ACTIVITIES

St. John's Day

Twice a year, grammar school students from St. John's in the Bronx come to spend time in "the country". With about ninety Albertus volunteers, Sr. Marianne organizes lunch, dinner, and games in between.

Both the Albertus and St. John's students enjoy getting to know each other on these days, and look forward to them every year.

Christmas Dance

Pop's Hop

The Pop's Hop is our annual Father - Daughter dance, sponsored by the Fathers' Club. At this year's dance, held in October, the prevalent attitude was "share and share alike", as fathers were passed from daughter to daughter during the dances. At the end of the fun and profitable evening, prizes were awarded to the best dancers. Fathers and daughters both are looking forward to next year's dance.

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown

"It was a dark and stormy night" . . . but not if you were lucky enough to be in the audience for this year's Drama Extravaganza! Charles Schultz's "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" is a light - hearted comedy centering around the growing - up lives of the Peanuts Gang, particularly wishy - washy Charlie Brown. Under the direction of Mr. Carl Locatelli, the play was enacted with a beautiful simplicity which enchanted the audience. Excellent choreography and musical coordination, along with professional-looking scenery rounded out the picture and contributed to the overwhelming success of this year's production.

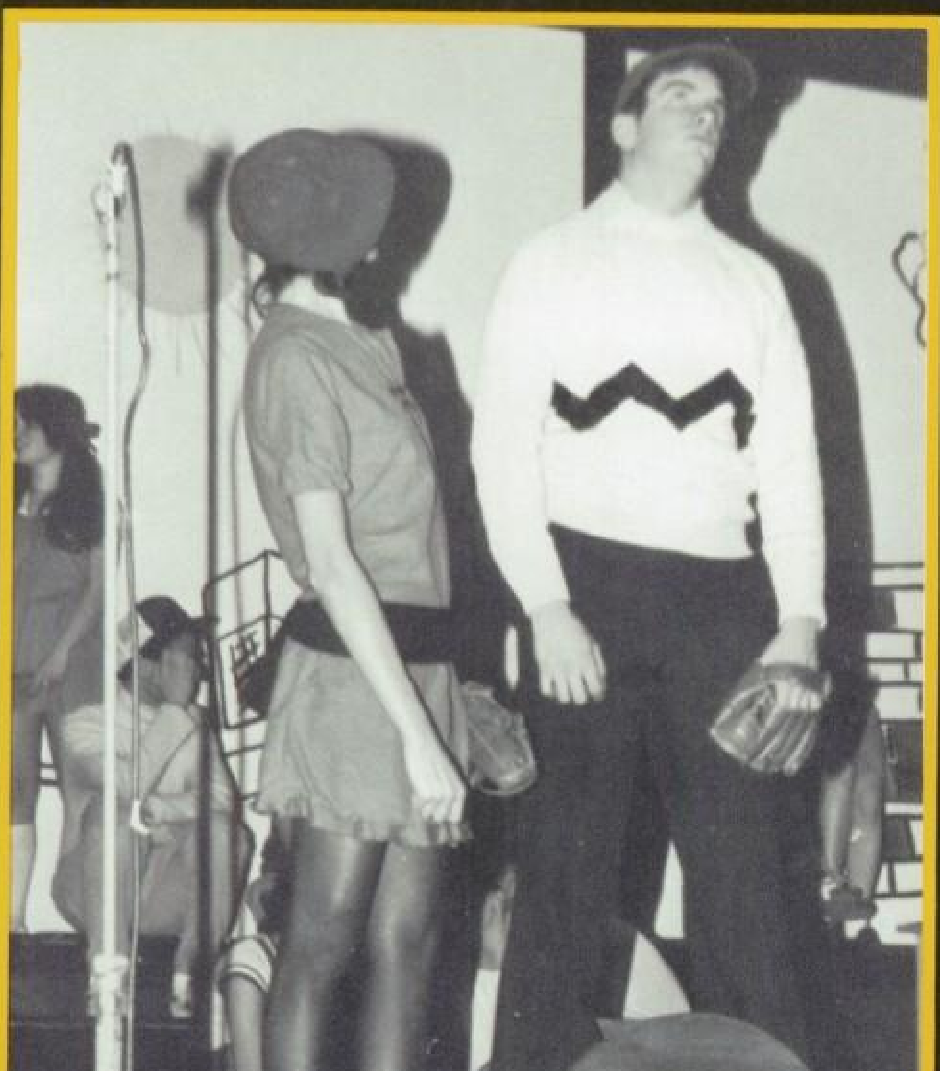

"Curse you, Red Baron!!!"

"A book report on Peter Rabbit . . ."

"Good grief . . . I can't stand it."

Musicians Anne Sheridan and Martha Williams 'take five'.

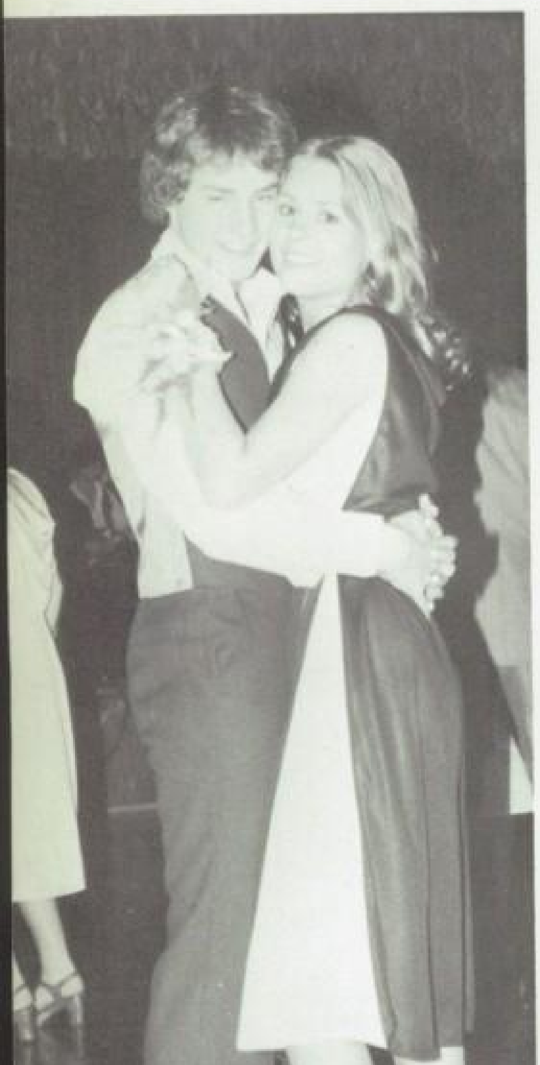

Hearts Dance

The Hearts Dance is an annual Valentine Day function sponsored by the Student Council. This year the event, which is traditionally Sadie Hawkins style, was held on February 9. As usual, a live band provided entertainment, and a buffet was set up in the cafeteria.

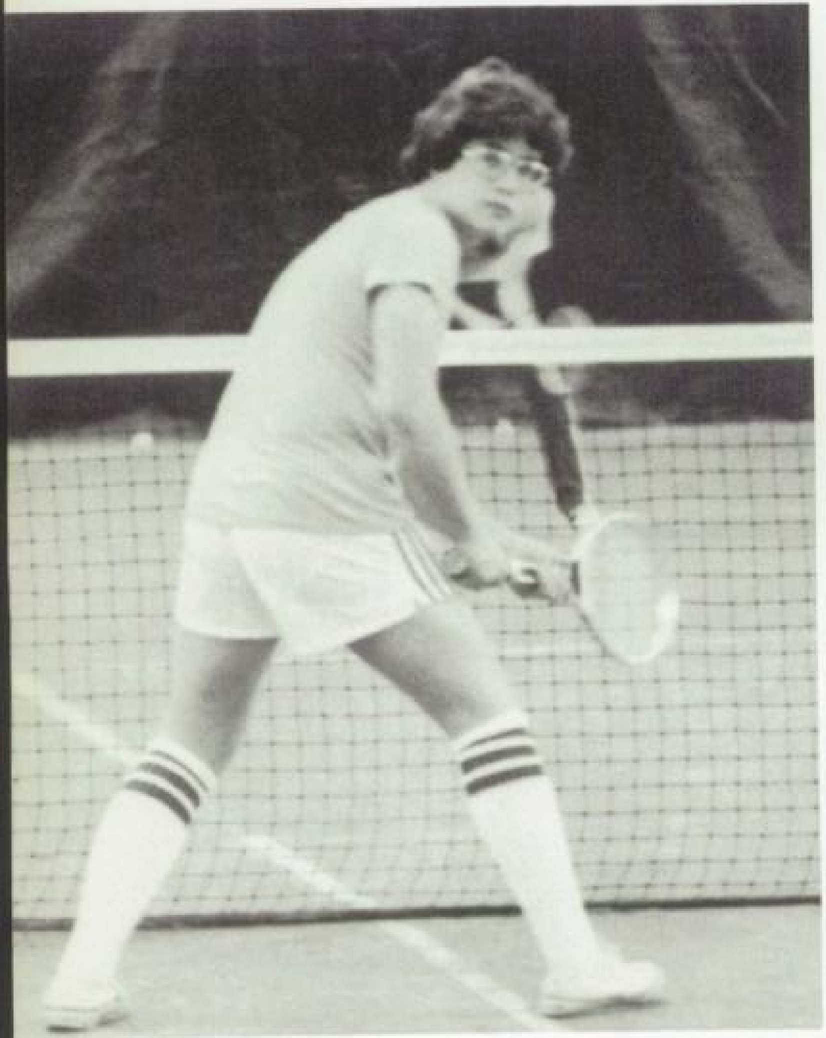

Tennis Club

A new club was organized this year by Ms. Giardina and Mr. Ascuitto. This fall, the Tennis Club met every Monday and Wednesday afternoon at West Rock Tennis Club to play singles, doubles, and round robin matches. The active interest of the thirty to forty people involved, if carried through to next year, may lead to extramural involvement.

"It was girls' basketball at its very best" said a Journal News writer in reference to our 3rd annual pre-season Christmas Tournament. The 1979-80 season represented just that as our team of hard-working players won game after game. Special mention to Coach Frank Kennelly who, in his first year with the team, brought much enthusiasm to the practices and games.

silk peacock feathers
and indigo blue . . .
        such are my feelings . . .
        a sensation
of space . . .
          cool with breeze
blown from a distant galaxy . . .
silver moonlight embroiders
        blue fields and stitches of darkness
are ripped with the dawn,
         but that is faraway -
  still to come are deeper hours of the night -
breathing the violet
        air of universe . . .
        peacock feathers - a thousand eyes . . . and the sky stars . . . move with the tide . . .
       how could it be possible
        that this be only one dream
     among infinite numbers
that fill others skies
      this very hour . . .?
why this cannot be so
   - a dream?
  for just this moment
    a blue wind
  fell thru my hair
 and a star
         cut my eye.

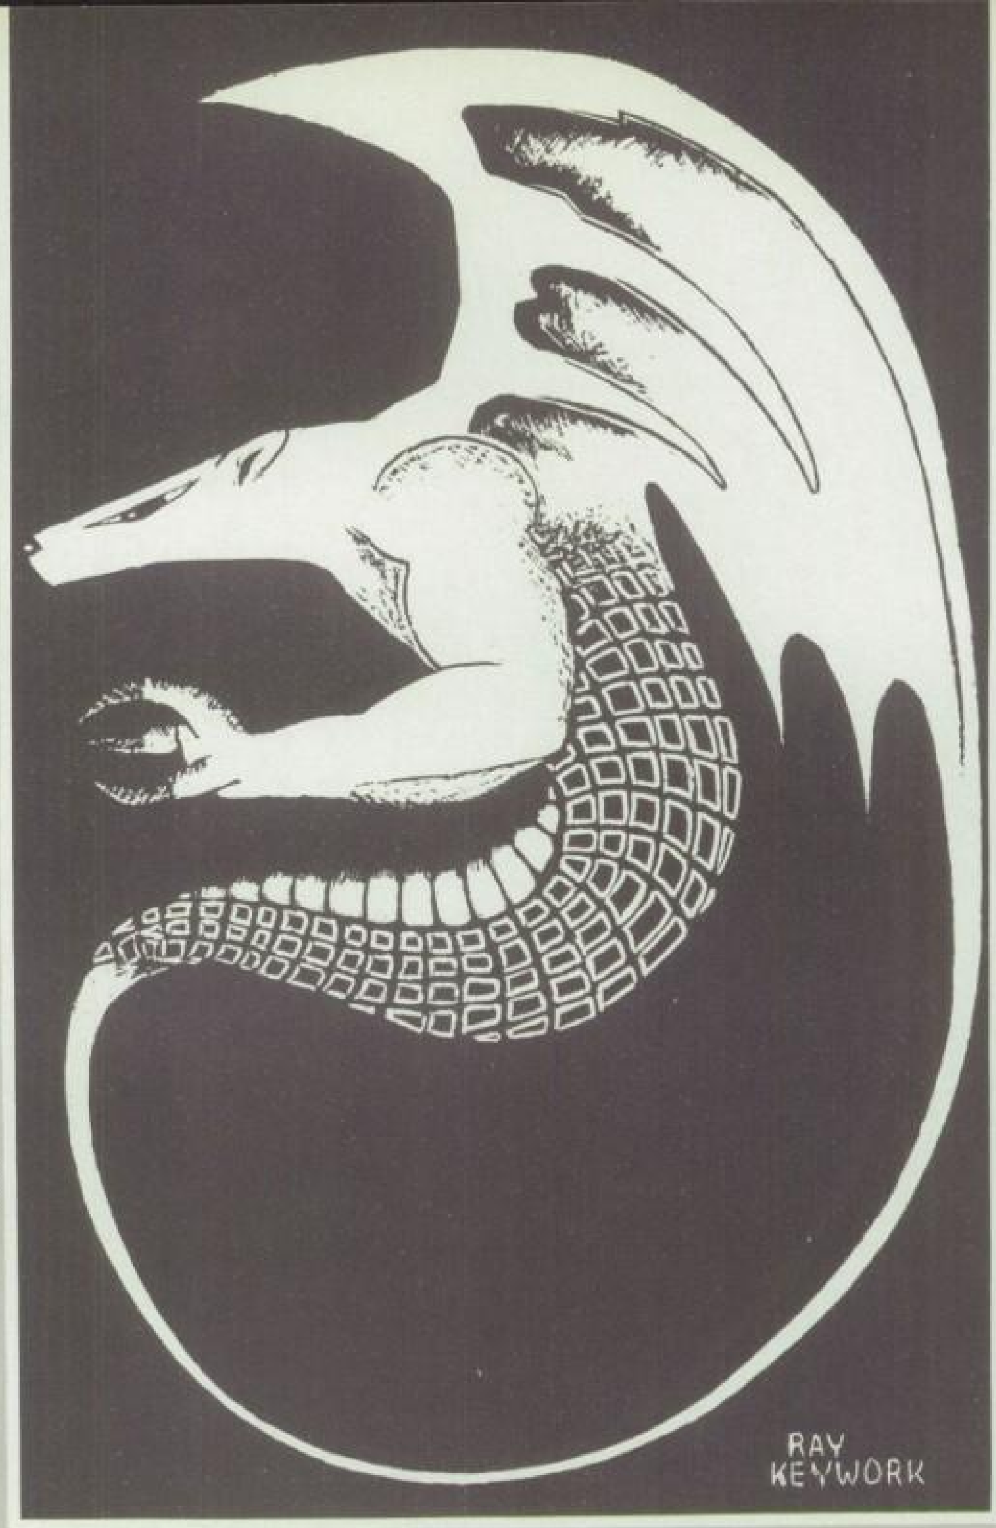

it must be true
that each of us holds in some secret corner
of mind, memory, or perhaps imagination . . .
the Time that we loved best . . .
the Time when it seems life was made for only us . . .
a moment
that honored your existence
. . . bestowed a gift upon you . . .
strength, wisdom
or maybe a Touch of love . . .
often it is a series of days
run together - that somehow came to an end, and got cut off . . . detached till they no longer seemed real . . .
but we know that they were -
and that they are ours -
to hold onto forever . . .
the remembrance stays sweet though the tongue may grow bitter . . .
and alone, one brings out
the memory, touches
it upon his heart and goes through the ecstatic pain
of living it again . . .
when no one's around - we picture how it was
and caress the hand
that once saved us from lonliness . . .
too often, the people who shared the Time, know not how much it means - how
dear to one heart . . .
but they need not know . . .
the best Time - that once - is not to be known but to the sentiment and the soul . . .
pains of remembering do not kill - cannot heal -
they only remain - to sometimes burn bright again . . .
or to slowly fade away . . .
Perhaps your Time
was a night like this . . . when wind was soft
and you realized your God . . .
or maybe a hazy afternoon
with an unnamed lover by the sea . . .
perhaps this was your Time . . .
Yes, each has a Time, a one Time,
that they loved best . . .
and that hurts to remember most.

i am the child
with whom you shared
a womb.
i am the child
with whom you played.
i am your brother;
i am your mother.
i am the woman you
have yet to marry;
i am the one
you have yet to meet.

a deaf man sat in a meadow rocking in time to the music
coming from the grass — yet — heard it not — merely — listened to his creatures
crying in his head.

a blind man sits by a river
over which the sun rises:
a blaze of glory in pink and yellow,
touching the bones of his life (dead for decades)
but he is not interested.

a mute will sit on a mountain-top,
signing his life with his hands,
but not wishing for others to know
what he is trying to say, nor caring whether they do or not,
for he — merely — will be talking to himself.

— j.a.

"I'm in search of myself —
Have you seen me anywhere?"
Look at yourself one day —
What do you see? Do you like it?
Can you live with it?
See yourself,
Break the looking-glass.

Can you see yourself years from now?
But is what you see now Really any different from that?
Oh, why can't we see each other
As we are now?
For now is only now —
— fleeting, swift,
unable to be recaptured —
What is the future when today
Is falling down the stairs?
The future doesn't help you know
What to do now . . .
Accept yourself,
Break the looking-glass.

Look at yourself:
Do you like what you see? No?
Change it.
The world is open to you —
But only today:
The future is but a dream;
Tomrrow is but a memory of What yesterday was like.
Live for today — it is all you have.
See the changes,
Break the looking-glass.

You sit there — quietly — and think —
Your mind is far from me
and yourself.
I watch you
And see in your eyes
that you are hiding
something
But that is your right.
There is something in you no man knows of —
You keep it well hidden —
It is not for me
to find it.
— J. A.

Ring Night

Next to Graduation, Ring Night is the most memorable ceremony an Albertus student goes through. Ring Night '79, built around the theme "Photographs and Memories", was appropriately beautiful.

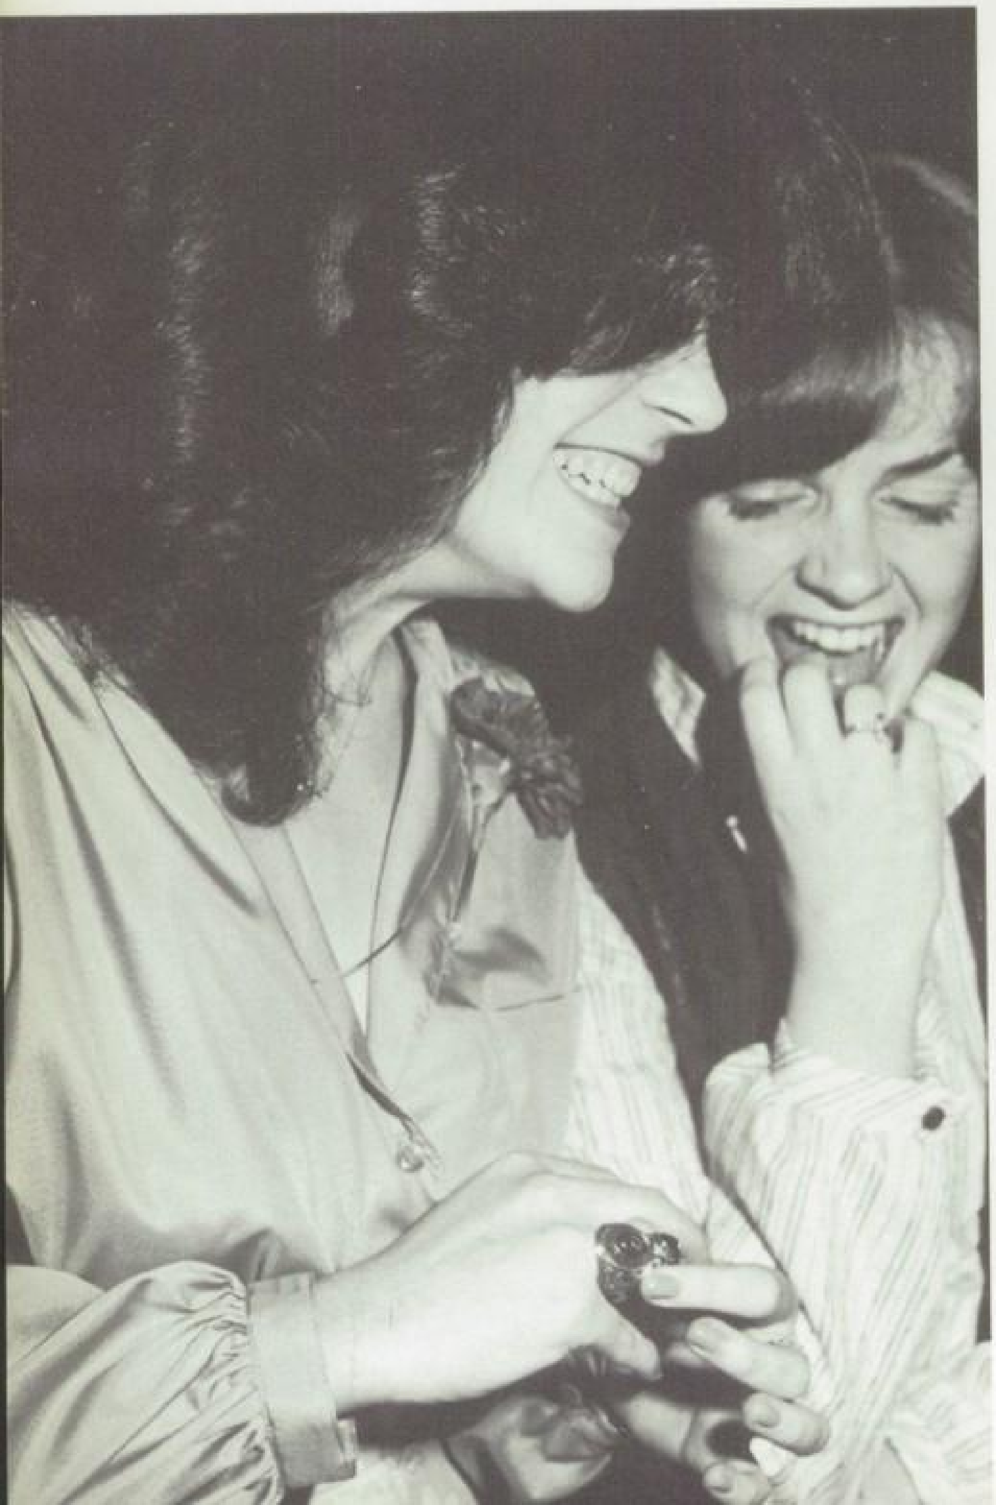

The Junior class officers worked hard with Ms. O'Brien and many volunteers to make the occasion as successful as it was.

The Mass was celebrated by Fr. Jim Dunn, and was attended by many parents as well as students.

"Peek-a-boo!"

A FRIEND, A PHOTOGRAPH, AND A TEAR,
ANOTHER MEMORY, ANOTHER YEAR,
WHEN THE PARTIES AND PROMS FADE INTO THE PAST,
IT'S THE SMILES AND TEARS WE KNOW WILL LAST,
A FRIEND WHO WAS THERE WHEN YOU WERE DOWN,
TO CHEER YOU UP, TO BE YOUR CLOWN,
OR WHEN SOMEONE YOU LOVED WENT AWAY,
YOU THOUGHT YOU COULDN'T LAST THE DAY,
IT'S TIMES LIKE THESE WE'VE CAPTURED HERE,
THOSE SPECIAL TIMES YOU HOLD MOST DEAR,
UNTIL ALL YOU HAVE LEFT FOR REMEMBRANCE ARE THESE,

Billy

May 14, 1962 - March 28, 1980

To My Friends

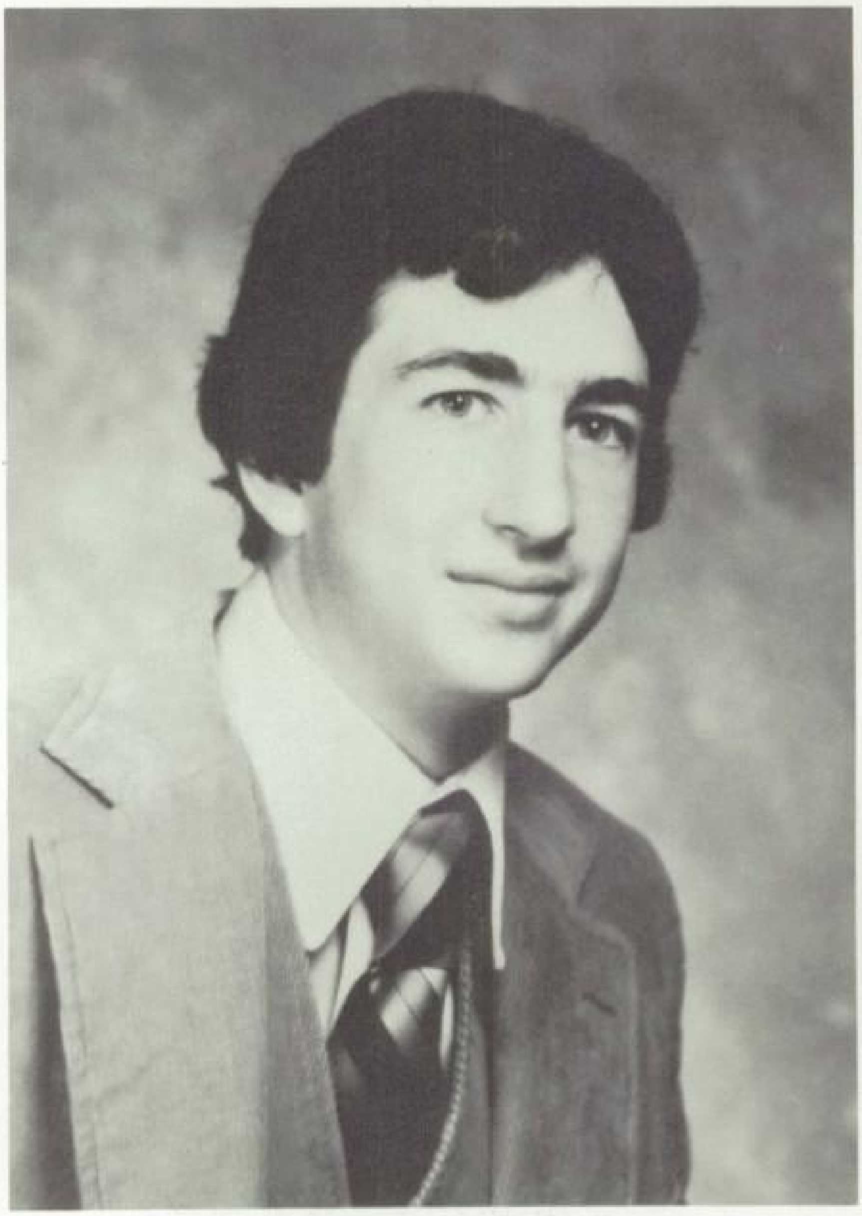

I love you not only for what you are,
But for what I am when I am with you.
I love you not only for what you have made of yourself,
But for what you have made of me.
I love you because you have done
More than any creed could have done to make me good,
And more than any fate could have done to make me happy.
You have done it without a touch,
Without a word, without a sign.
You have done it by being yourself.
Perhaps that is what being a friend means after all.

Danny

September 23, 1962 — March 28, 1980

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves.
Do not seek the answers that cannot be given you because you would not be able to live them and the point is to live everything.
Live the questions now;
perhaps you will gradually, without noticing it,
live along some distant day into the answers.

Tom

By your smile and kindness
By your laughter and voice
You have given to me
What I so desperately need
You have given me love
You've given me light
You gave me a part of yourself
For which I can truly say thanks
You have given to me
A new feeling for life
I can't always be happy
At times I must be sad
But with you by my side
I can take everything in stride

Because
You have given me love
You've given me light
You gave me yourself
A truly unselfish sacrifice
You are my first love
So please do understand
I am finding myself
With each step that I take
I want these steps
Whether they be big or small
To be made with you Because I have found myself
Through being with you
And I can truly say
"I love you".

Dear Matt

Well the summer
is here and my freshman year is over! One more year and your out! Good Luck in the future and I hope you become what you want to be. It's been a great year with you and I hope we can have the next one the same! Thank you for all the rides you gave me even when they were out of the way. I'm glad I got to know you. Thanks for all the help with your brother and I don't know if we'll ever get back together. I hope you both stay out of fights and he doesn't mean what he says. Maybe next year we'll be in the same study or lunch again. I guess I'll never look like you know who but I bet he does get her by senior year and even you know its true! Thanks again for everything and I guarantee that you'll probably run into me in your house during the summer.
or on the road!

Love always, Jenny.

Matt,

I'm glad I got to know you. You've made study a lot more fun than it would have been. I wish you the best of luck in all your years to come and many happy years too. Have a very nice summer and I hope to see you next year.

LOVE
Chrissy

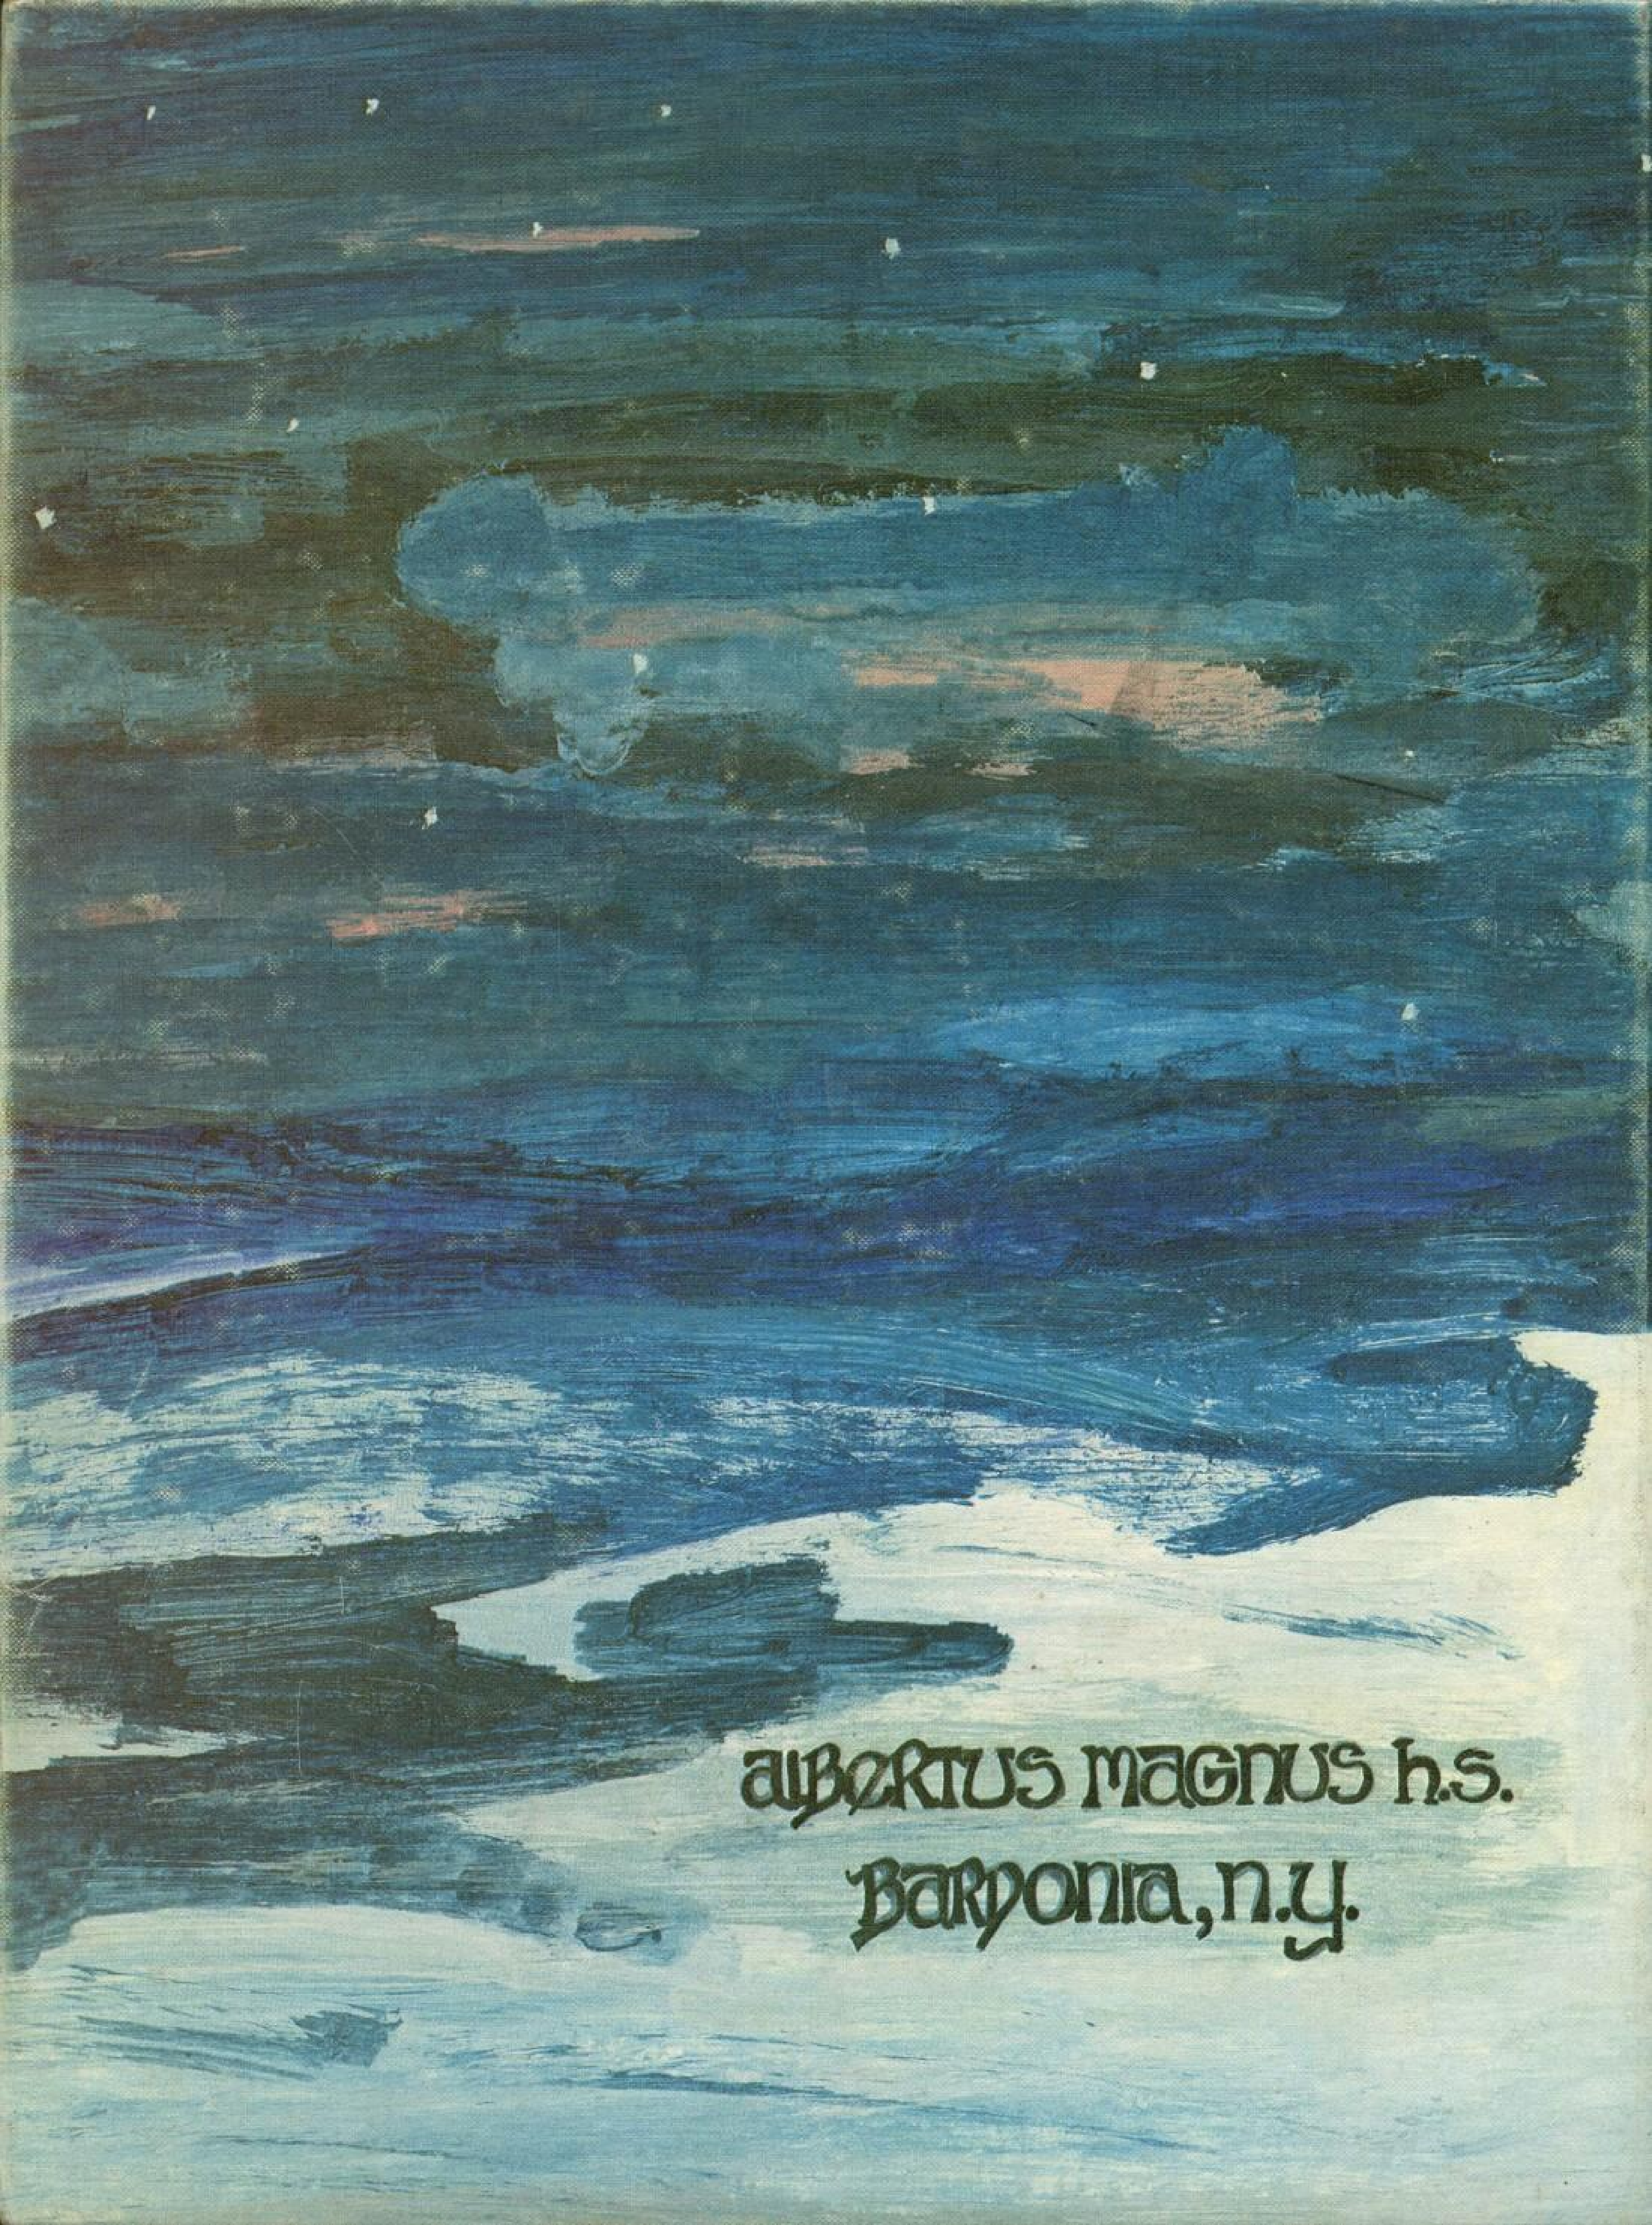

Dear Matt,

what can I say?

Its really been an experience for me this year, especially with you and mike! If you put aside all your bad points your really a nice guy when you want to be. I'm glad we became friends and I hope we will stay friends. I know I'm bound to see you over the summer, so I don't have to say keep in touch, I know you will! have a great summer and be good, I don't know why I wrote that, I guess I'd make it sound good.

Love always
Diane
